The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday, December 23d, 1873.

It is rumored that serious complications have arisen between Spain and Great Britain in regard to the Virginian massacre. It is positively stated that the punishment of the Commander at Santiago de Cuba, General Barriel, will be demanded by the British Government.

Some uneasiness is manifested in the Western cities on account of the hostility shown by the working men to the municipal authorities. These meetings in which the pseudo working men are mainly foreigners, are tinged with the wild aims of Communism, and the demand is made that the city government shall give them work or feed them.

Civil Rights.

The question of conferring upon the colored people, by positive legislation the rights which belong to them as citizens, has received the attention of the Legislature of this State and of the National Congress. The former body disposed of the subject in the shortest order, as if it was one which was beyond their concern. In Congress the democrats are ranging themselves against the measures; and doubtless will contest, step by step, the passage of any law which affects the desired rights of the negroes.

In the lower House of Congress, Mr. Beck, of Kentucky, warned the country that an attempt to enforce a law securing mixed schools, would be the signal for rebellion and insurrection. He maintained that the only rights which the colored people can claim under the Constitution are those guaranteed by the constitutional amendments; and generally objected to the action of Congress, as the matter belonged to the States.

Mr. Beck's remarks in reference to schools are suggestive. He is a citizen of Kentucky, which, though divided in sentiment about the war, was almost a unit upon slavery and the negro. It is a State in which the negroes have been left to the mercy of the whites, unprotected by the power of Federal authority. It is a State where the animosity and hatred for the negroes which is felt elsewhere in the South, is relaxed into contempt for the inferior race. It is a State which did not place itself within the purview of the reconstruction acts, and in which the negro has always been an unresisting victim of whatever impositions the lords of the soil attempted. It is a State which, consequently, feels that rebellion and insurrection are terms which do not signify a great deal; and that they may be attempted without great danger, and with little apprehension for the consequences.

But we are inclined to doubt whether the democratic members from the cotton States who sat with Mr. Beck upon the seats of the House of Representatives, would resurrect the perils of another rebellion, so close upon the heels of the first. Although many of the poorer classes of whites in the South are, by appeals to passion and ignorance induced to act with the party which oppressed them, yet it would be a mistake to assume that again they could be driven into the ranks of an army of conscripts, to fight battles at the command of the leaders of the democratic party. That terrible time in which the poor whites were forced off from destitute and agonized families, to defend a cause for which they had no interest or sympathy, is vivid in their memory; and long will it remain.

To the colored people we can say, that the only hope which they have of obtaining a legal recognition of their rights is in Congress. Before that body their claims must be pressed, and doubtless a short time only will elapse before they will be redeemed from that condition which is the last taint of slavery.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]
TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
SENATE.

SATURDAY, Dec. 20.

Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieutenant Governor Brogden in the chair.
Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Introduction of Bills and Petitions.

By Mr. Troy, a bill in relation to Battle's Revival. Provides that it shall not go into effect till February 1st, 1874. The rules were suspended and the bill taken up on its passage.
Mr. Seymour offered an amendment that all laws amended should go into effect at the same time.

Mr. Merrimon offered a substitute for the bill, embodying the bill and amendment, which was adopted.

Mr. Troy stated, in his request for a suspension of the rules to put the bill on its passage, that it was necessary in order to protect the inspection laws of the city of Wilmington, &c. The bill passed its several readings.

By Mr. Dunham, a petition from citizens of Halifax county in regard to the canal from Gaston to Weldon. On motion of Mr. Dunham, the petition was referred to a select committee.

By Mr. Avera, a bill for the better care and protection of the orphans of the State. Referred.

Mr. Avera said in introducing the bill that he did not expect or desire that it should come up till after recess, but he would be glad if the press of the State would after noticing his bill criticize accordingly. It was an important matter and the General Assembly would profit by the voice of the press.

Rules Suspended.

Mr. Merrimon's bill to amend the charter of the Greenville and French Broad Railway Company passed its readings.

On motion of Mr. Dunham, the rules were suspended to allow the passage of the bill providing that all acts passed by the General Assembly from November 14th, 1873, to December 22d, 1873, inclusive, shall be in force according to their ratification clauses.

The House's "fish" bill, the provisions of which are to stake out the channel of the Roanoke river at its mouth and to allow the passage of fish upstream, was called up by Mr. Chamberlain and passed its third reading.

Messages Received.

From the House of Representatives transmitting a number of bills for concurrence, in the list of which was the bill to extend the charter of the Swanoona Gap Railroad, with several amendments. Mr. Gudger argued in favor of postponing the action on the question of concurrence till the 15th of January.

Mr. Merrimon, though opposed to the amendments, was willing to concur, and opposed the motion to postpone, stating that it would amount to a defeat of the bill.

The motion of Mr. Gudger to postpone, prevailed by a close vote.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order at 10 a. m.

Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. McNeill presented a petition from citizens of Richmond and Robeson county, asking a prohibitory liquor law within five miles of Montpelier church, Robeson county.

"OUR YOUNG FOLKS"

HAS BEEN MERGED INTO "ST. NICHOLAS."

In addition to the striking novelties and great literary and artistic attractions already offered by "ST. NICHOLAS," the best features of "Our Young Folks" will be retained. "ST. NICHOLAS" has been enlarged, new contributions have been secured; among them

A SERIAL STORY BY J. T. TOWERIDGE,

Late Editor of "Our Young Folks," which begins in the present number. Other eminent writers well known to the readers of "Our Young Folks" have been engaged. We are thus enabled to present to the public a Magazine for Children and Youth, superior in every respect to any ever before published.

THREE SPLENDID SERIAL STORIES.

"WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED."

A Story for Boys, by FRANK E. STOCKTON,

A great favorite with the children. It is a good, strong, wholesome story of girl life, and will be full of interest for both boys and girls.

"FAST FRIENDS."

ONE of our typists wishes to return his thanks to Messrs. James H. McGarity & Co., for a bottle of "Baker's Old Rye Whiskey," seven years old. It has been tried, and pronounced excellent by judges. This firm has a fine lot of Christmas goods, and show their good sense by calling attention to the same through an advertisement in the Post.

FESTIVAL.—The very unpropitious weather yesterday evening deterred many from attending the children's festival at the City Court Room, though, however, there was quite a good attendance who did justice to the catables.—This evening there will be a continuation of the festival, and all the fancy articles disposed of. No one need be afraid to go on account of raffles, short change, etc., as there is nothing to raffle, and the ladies scrupulously bring the correct change. Admission free.

—Awful muddy and sloppy about the streets.

—Buy your Christmas presents of those who advertise.

—The Tileston School will re-open the first Monday in January.

—At Masonic Hall to-night will be seen another Christmas tree, at the Second Presbyterian Church Festival. A good time is in store for many.

—St. Paul's Christmas tree, solely for the benefit of their Sabbath School children, and nothing for sale, will be lighted to-morrow night at Mr. Hinton's school house.

—The Christmas tree at the City Hall last night was a success, but the goods were not all sold. They will be closed out cheap to-night. This is in aid of St. John's Church.

SOME of the trotters in attendance at the Fair are still in the city.

WE can hear of no robberies perpetrated last night. If the thieves conspire against us, how can we fill up a local page?

HOW TO REMOVE STAINS AND SPOTS FROM MARBLE FURNITURE, ETC.

—The only stain which Sapolio will not remove is a "stain upon the character." But from marble mantels, tables, china, table ware, carpets, furniture of every description, or any article of household ornament or use, the deepest dyed stain can be instantly washed out forever by the use of Sapolio. It is as cheap as ordinary bar soap, and will always do exactly what is claimed for it, if the simple directions are followed.

OLD BIRD.—The man, Robt. Hill, who robbed Mr. Gay's money drawer yesterday was arrested last night and lodged in jail. This morning he had a hearing before Squire VanAmringe, and was bound over to the Superior Court. Hill is an old offender, and has accepted the hospitalities of the genial keeper of the workhouse on two or three occasions. Hill is one of those unfortunate beings who is troubled to a very alarming extent with kleptomania.

MONTHLY ENTERTAINMENT.—The second of the monthly entertainments of the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will be given this evening in the reception rooms of the Young Men's Christmas Association, on Market street. A great many useful and ornamental articles, suitable Xmas presents for old and young, will be offered for sale at a "mere song." The immense Christmas tree prepared and beautified by the young ladies of Mr. Chadbourne's Bible Class is well worth seeing, and speaks volumes for the good taste of the fair ones who have taken so much pains with it. To the other many attractions is added refreshments for the inner man, which are to be disposed of on a cheap basis. Strangers in the city and at the hotels could wile away an hour or two very pleasantly.

SAILOR DROWNED.—On Friday evening last a seaman, Herman Doebeke, of the German Brig Dorothea, accompanied by the mate went in a yawl-boat to a German vessel lying on the opposite side of the river to procure some tubs to use in getting out the ballast from the Dorothea and to visit a friend on board the vessel. After spending the evening with their friend they returned to the vessel; the mate had gotten on board the ship and the unfortunate man Doebeke attempted to throw the tubs on board, but missing his footing he fell overboard with the tubs falling on top of him. Ropes were thrown to him and the mate was soon in the boat, but before he could get to the unfortunate fellow he had sunk.

At the time of the accident the tide was running very swift, and in all probability the sailor was sucked under the vessel. His fellow seamen have been fishing for his body, but up to the time of our going to press it had not been recovered.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Finding of the Coroner's Jury in the case of Thos. C. Thompson. ABBOTTSBURG, Dec. 18, 1873.

EDITOR POST: Whatever political feeling may exist between the whites and blacks, and however watchful the one may be over the conduct of the other, the pleasing fact is now established that neither is disposed to shield criminals merely because they are of the same race with themselves. It is always assumed that the whites never wink at crime because the criminal is white, but it has long been assumed that the blacks will cover the black man's crime because he is black; and by many it is now claimed that the blacks can never attain to the virtue of the white race in this respect, and that their insensibility to the demands of justice will render their participation in the administration of justice dangerous.

The conduct of the colored jurors of this inquest, their zeal and discretion in bringing the dark crime to the light—though the criminals were blacks—forever negatives the imputation that the blacks are not as safe and diligent in punishing criminal black men, as are the whites in punishing criminal white men.

After a laborious examination of three days, was educed clear and conclusive evidence that Thomas C. Thompson came to his death by a blow with an ax on his head, the ax in the hands of Bill Wright, accompanied by John Hall and Mitchell Shipman, three colored men. The first to sign the verdict were the colored members of the jury.

John Hall and Bill Wright were committed to the mercies of Sheriff Sykes. Shipman was bound over to appear at the next term of Court. The examination conducted by Thomas H. Sutton, Esq., was thorough and satisfactory, to whom too much credit cannot be awarded. His eminent skill and untiring industry educed clear and convincing evidence. Reluctant witnesses were pierced by his arrow like questions; the hostile decoyed from their coverts by his sagacity; the chain of evidence made perfect in every link by his penetration and combination. The people of Bladen county are to be congratulated in possessing such a man, both zealous and competent to insure the punishment of crime and also a man whose head and heart are enlisted in the defense of the guiltless and wronged, fearless of petty prejudices.

EDITOR POST: As a citizen of "Brooklyn," and feeling that the city fathers have treated us in a very unbecoming manner relative to the erection of a suitable structure on Fourth street, in place of the very unsafe and "shabby" one known as "Boney Bridge," I now, by request of the suffering citizens, take this opportunity of appealing to the city fathers to enquire why it is that the work has not been begun. Is it because the honorable Board have so far neglected their sworn duties as to entirely forget us and "play the go by," or have they, instead of this, placed the matter in the hands of one single member of the Board, who has no personal interest in our welfare, and consequently has made no endeavors to have the much wished for structure erected?

I sincerely trust that the Board will at once investigate the matter, and will at once have the work begun.

FLORIDA.

KEY WEST, December 23. A special dispatch says that the survivors of the Virginus were kept in ignorance of their fate, and were visited by bogus priests, who exacted their dying confessions. They thought that they were going to death, and upon the confessions of these poor wretches it is said that Attorney General Williams founded his opinion that the Virginus had no right to bear American colors.

The poor fellows supposed that they were going to a slaughter house, but the presence of the Junia and the surrender to his officers led to the most extraordinary emotional demonstrations.

On the arrival of the Ponca at Santiago, orders came to the ship from Commander Braine for the paymaster to issue all the blankets and pea jackets in his department to the prisoners, who were hardly fit to be seen in their rags. This was speedily done, but as there was still great destitution, orders came for every man on board to give their own blankets and wearing apparel in the good cause, the promise being made that all would be replaced on the arrival of the ship at Key West. The officers and men cheerfully complied with this order, only preferring that it should be issued as a request, in which case they would have obeyed with just as much alacrity. Every heart was touched by the pitiable condition of the prisoners. The poor fellows report that they were barbarously treated.

They say that when officers from the Tornado boarded the Virginus, one of them in hauling down the flag of the United States tore it into ribbons and trampled on it, asserting with oaths, "This is what I have wanted."

The situation in Santiago de Cuba is reported as still serious. A large majority of the population is in sympathy with the Cuban cause, but the volunteers control everything with a high hand. Only one week ago twenty-five citizens in Santiago were arrested, and after a mock trial had been gone through with, without any evidence being adduced against them, they were told to go home. On the way they were cruelly waylaid and killed, only one escaping. He was riddled with bullets and dangerously wounded.

Americans are continually in fear for their lives, and bitterly complain that nothing has been done to redress their wrongs. It is not safe for American officers to go ashore alone at Santiago.

All along the river line the Spaniards are erecting new batteries. The Powhattan will leave for Norfolk to-night. The Wyoming was inspected.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 23. It has been ascertained from a prominent Government official that the investigation as to the character of the Virginus will be conducted in New York, though the Government is powerless to proceed against Patterson, to whom the register for that vessel was issued, on account of the statute of limitation, therefore no punishment can be inflicted. Two years having elapsed since he obtained the papers, he cannot be molested, but had all the facts become known within the two years he would have been prosecuted for perjury. The President and his company returned here this morning from St. Louis.

THE NEW YORK DAILY TIMES IS THE ONLY REPUBLICAN JOURNAL
IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

The high character which THE DAILY Times has achieved has procured it a sufficient guarantee for its conduct in the future. It will continue to advocate the cause of the public, without reference to the interests of individuals. No expense will be spared in the maintenance of its position as the for-most of American journals. It is the best served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important

PROSPECTUS.
EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,
up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE, its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST
is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium
it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it despises a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST
is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL, AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE Post.

THE POST
is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages.
THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with ness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES
Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, Russian authors, and Lord
Lytton (Bulwer), Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgueniev, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. On-phant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs. Parr (author of "Dorothy Baxter"), Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together with an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature, is indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE LATEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics, is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Republishes the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapness! A month that comes every week, at the price of a box of cigars."
The Liberator.

"The latest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—The Boston Herald.

"With it almost no reader may fail to keep
